

The New Normal, but doesn't mean we have to have less fun.....

Threaded from Heaven, is following the CDC Guidelines. No student will be admitted if they are showing any signs of a cold, runny nose, sniffing, fever etc. We are practicing safety, & social distancing.

All students and the Staff at Threaded from Heaven will be asked to;

1. Wear a mask or have coverage for face.
2. Students will be asked to clean hands with water and soap upon entry
 - Please provide hand sanitizer for your personal use.
3. Students will be assigned to a sewing station;
 - All equipment will be disinfected – each student will be assigned sewing notions for class use.
 - They will be able to sew, cut, arrange project within the 6' counter space.
4. Students will no longer;
 - Touch music tablet
 - Check in or out

Parents will be asked to drop off students. They will be checked in electronically. When class is over parents can call studio @ 678-765-0791 to state they are here for pickup and provide their name. This information will be compared to the forms on record and the student will be released.

Virtual classes are always an option if you are not feeling well.

I have read and agree to the above
