

Sewing Instructor (Part-Time)

We're looking for a confident, creative, and reliable Sewing Instructor to lead classes for kids, teens, and/or adults in our growing studio.

This role is perfect for someone who enjoys teaching, inspiring creativity, and helping students build real sewing skills in a fun and supportive environment.

What You'll Do:

- Lead structured sewing classes (beginner to intermediate levels)
- Guide students through projects step-by-step
- Encourage creativity, confidence, and independence
- Maintain a positive, organized classroom environment
- Prepare materials and manage class flow

You're a Great Fit If You:

- Have strong sewing skills (machine and construction knowledge)
- Enjoy teaching or working with kids/teens/adults
- Are patient, encouraging, and clear in your instruction
- Can manage a group while keeping things fun and focused
- Are dependable and professional

Schedule:

- Flexible based on class schedule (afternoons, evenings, weekends)

Pay:

$12–$15/hr (based on skill + teaching experience)
